MONTHLY PRAYER BLOG

March

Jesus said in John 10:27 "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me." How do we know when Jesus is speaking to us? Do we truly recognize his voice? When life gets so busy... school, work, finding a soul mate, getting married, having children, raising children, doing volunteer work, taking care of children, taking care of elderly parents (in-law)....

The list can go on forever. How do we seek God in our busy schedule? Coming to church on Sunday? Worshipping Him on Sunday? Yes, these are important.

The apostle Paul wrote to the Romans saying Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ." (Romans 10:17) The only way to know God is through His word. Is it enough to hear the sermon on Sunday? If you are like most people, that's not enough! The joy of knowing God is almost like playing the piano... the more proficient you are in playing the piano... the more joy you can get from the music you make!

If seeking God is found in His word, do you currently do daily devotions? If you are, I encourage you to share your experience with brothers and sisters so that in turn, you may encourage them to seek the Lord in His word! If you are not, I encourage you to establish a habit of doing daily devotions. If you have an iPhone or smart phone, there is an App call YouVersion. There are many devotional plans with many different topics. Start with a short plan of maybe 3 - 7 days and then build up the length of the plan; get in the habit of doing a daily devotion and soak in His word!

May God bless you as you seek Him daily! May Jesus be our model in listening to the Father! May the Holy Spirit guide us as we study the word of God!

Deuteronomy 4:29-31

But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul. When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the LORD your God and obey him. For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your forefathers, which he confirmed to them by oath.
